The School Results reflected above are not New York specific and shown only as an example.

The School Results report contains the same information as the Class Results

- Reports include only valid student records as determined by state-level review of results. If a student record was invalidated during the state's two-week review window, the student is not included in these results.
- Remember that total skills mastered is based on what the student demonstrated on the DLM assessments. A student may have demonstrated similar skills during instruction but not demonstrated the skill during a DLM assessment.
- The assessment measures where students are with regard to the grade-level target. Not all students perform at the at Target level, and that is to be expected.
- These results provide a summary of overall performance in the grade/subject at the class and school level. More useful information for instructional planning is located in each student's Individual Student Score Report.

District- and State- Level Results

The District Results report provides one table of results. Each row shows the number of students assessed at that grade and subject and the number of students who achieved at each performance level. The last column indicates the percent of students at the _____ or _____ levels. The State Results report has the same formatting and provides the same type of information for all student records in the state.

Hints for Interpreting Final District and State Results

- Student results are reported for the district where they were assessed. This may not be the same district where they are counted for accountability purposes.
- If a student was enrolled in DLM assessments but did not complete any items in any testlet in any subject, the student is not included in these results.
- Reports include only valid student records as determined by state-level review of results.
- These reports provide a high-level summary of all students at the district or state level. More useful information for instructional planning is located in each student's Individual Student Score Report.
